Are you a student interested in traveling abroad to study sport? Come and learn about the opportunity to study at the German Sport University Cologne. This university is the largest sport university in Europe with 5,000 enrolled students.

The College of Health and Human Performance and the German Sport University Cologne would like to invite you to participate in an information session with Professor Dr. Gerard King and current student Lorraine Hoffmann. Dr. King will share information about the German Sport University Cologne and the exchange program. Lorraine Hoffmann is a student from the German Sport University Cologne who is currently participating in the exchange program and studying at UF this semester. She will share a student’s perspective of her school and community.

This opportunity is open to undergraduate and graduate students in HHP!
