

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Undergraduate Degree Program: Recreation, Parks and Tourism

College: Health and Human Performance

Department: Tourism, Recreation and Sport Management

Department Chair: Michael Sagas Email Address: msagas@ufl.edu

Undergraduate Coordinator: Doug DeMichele Email Address: demiche@hhp.ufl.edu

Student Learning Outcomes

	LEI 4800	LEI 4540	LEI 4570	LEI 4880	LEI 4940
Recreation, Park & Tourism Skills
Comprehend major concepts, principles, and theories associated with recreation, parks and tourism.		X		X
Explain the management functions of planning, organizing, leading, and controlling the use of resources to accomplish performance goals in recreation, parks and tourism.		X	X	X
Understand the economic, sociological, psychological, political, legal, and environmental issues that influence the delivery or recreation, park and tourism services to residents and tourists.	X	X	X
Apply information technology and statistical techniques in assessment, planning, delivery, and evaluation of recreation, parks and tourism programs.				X
Apply programming and marketing strategies to the development of recreation, parks and tourism services.		X	X
Understand the psychological, sociological, and physiological significance of leisure, play, and recreation from an historical and cultural perspective of all populations, settings and services.
Develop expertise of the principles of safety, emergency, and risk management and the ability to develop and implement risk management plans that assure the health and safety of participants and staff.	X	X
Critical Thinking Skills
Comprehend and apply diverse sources of information and data integrated with theoretical frameworks, models and trends to issues related to leadership, management and delivery of recreation, park and tourism services.
	X	X	X	X	X
Communication Skills
To communicate to consumer publics and professional cohorts (such as government and business decision-makers) through written text, oral messages and multimedia presentations used in recreation, parks and tourism.	X	X	X	X	X

Recreation, Parks and Tourism Degree Program

Individual Student Assessments for ALCs and SLOs

Before Graduating You Must

Demonstrate an understanding of the critical skills needed in the planning and delivery of tourism, recreation and event management programs, as well as successfully completing an internship experience, as assessed by the site supervisor and internship coordinator.

Satisfy the Florida statutes for the College-Level Academic Skills Requirement.

Complete requirements for the baccalaureate degree, as determined by faculty.